Upon notice of Claim required in Section 9 of this Ordinance, The Director of Legal shall cause the claim to be submitted to the Tribe’s applicable insurer. If the Tort Claim is rejected by the insurer or the parties have reached an impasse as to the dollar value of a settlement of a Claim, the Claim may only then be taken to the Cowitz Tribal Court, provided all jurisdictional prerequisites set forth in this Ordinance have been satisfied.

The stay shall be dissolved and an order directing further proceedings in the action or proceeding on the claim of injury shall be entered by the Tribal Court, after notice and hearing thereon, upon receipt of notice satisfactory to the Tribal Court that the United States has declined to assume defense of the claim of injury.
(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Ordinance, there shall be no waiver of sovereign immunity for any action or claim of monetary damages for any injury alleged to have resulted from any:

(2) Action taken or decision made in good faith and without gross negligence in carrying out the law; or

(3) Intentional tort, including but not limited to assault, battery, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, abuse of process, libel, slander, defamation, misrepresentation, deceit, interference with contract rights, or interference with prospective economic advantage, except that this provision does not immunize the Tribe for any acts or omissions of investigative or law enforcement officers giving rise to claims for assault, battery, false arrest, false imprisonment, or malicious prosecution; provided, that for purposes of this subsection “investigative or law enforcement officer” means any Agent, Employee, or Officer of the Tribe who is empowered to execute searches, to seize evidence, or to make arrests under Tribal law; or

(4) Legislative or judicial action or inaction, or administrative action or inaction of a legislative or judicial nature, such as but not limited to adopting or failing to adopt a law; or

(8) Injury or damage caused by an escaping or escaped person or prisoner, a person resisting arrest, or by a prisoner to himself or herself, except upon a showing of gross negligence; or

(9) Decision made by the Tribe or any Agent, Employee, or Officer of the Tribe in the implementation of the Indian Child Welfare Act or other laws respecting the placement or supervision of minors or incompetent persons; or

(10) Claim based upon an act or omission of any Agent, Employee, or Officer of the Tribe exercising due care, in the execution of any statute, rule or regulation, whether such statute, rule or regulation is valid; or

(11) Claim based on the assessment or collection of any tax, or the detention of any goods or merchandise by any law enforcement officer; or

(12) Claims for breach of contract, wrongful termination, or other employment related claims.

The enumeration of the above immunities shall not be construed to waive any other immunities nor to assume any liabilities except as explicitly provided by this Ordinance.
(d) The procedures and standards for giving notice of claims to the Tribe under this Ordinance are integral parts of the limited waiver of sovereign immunity provided by this Ordinance, and shall be strictly and narrowly construed. A claim for monetary damages against the Tribe shall be forever barred unless written notice of the claim has been given pursuant to the requirements contained in this Ordinance, and is commenced in Tribal Court in accordance with the provisions of the Tribe’s Court Ordinance.

(e) Neither execution nor attachment shall issue against the Tribe in any claim for injury or proceedings initiated under this Ordinance.

Section 12. Bench Trial of Actions and Appeals. The procedures for bench trials and appeals commenced pursuant to this Ordinance are set forth in the Tribe’s Court Ordinance. All trials commenced under this Ordinance shall be tried by a Judge of the Tribal Court without a jury.

(a) Any liability for monetary damages assumed by the Tribe for the acts or omissions of any Agent, Employee, or Officer of the Tribe under this Ordinance shall be the exclusive remedy available to any person who suffers an injury caused by an Agent, Employee, or Officer of the Tribe. Any claim for monetary damages assumed by the Tribe which otherwise would lie against an Agent, Employee, or Officer of the Tribe except for this Ordinance is forever extinguished in favor of the remedy established and limited by this Ordinance, whether or not the person in whose favor such remedy is created exercises the right to timely present written notice of any claim and commence an action for an injury in Tribal Court under this Ordinance.

(b) This Ordinance expressly preserves defenses of qualified or absolute immunity to actions for monetary damages against Agents, Employees, or Officers of the Tribe in their individual capacities. By way of illustration rather than limitation, the defenses preserved by this Ordinance include absolute legislative and judicial immunities, qualified and absolute executive immunities, and their derivatives, which were recognized in the common law and elaborated by federal courts in cases alleging violations of federal law.

(c) A person who suffers an injury as a result of an act or omission of the Tribe or an Agent, Employee, or Officer acting on behalf of the Tribe may not use procedures other than those established in this Ordinance to seek monetary damages, even if another remedy may be provided by another provision of Tribal law of general application. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Ordinance shall not bar any person from pursuing remedies in accordance with otherwise applicable law for claims relating to worker’s compensation, unemployment compensation, or employee disciplinary actions taken pursuant to applicable Tribal personnel policies and procedures.

(d) Volunteers duly authorized by the Tribe or an Agent, Employee, or Officer of the Tribe shall have the same immunities under this Ordinance as Agents, Employees, or Officers of the Tribe.

Section 14. Severability. If any part of this Ordinance is invalidated by the Tribal Court, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this Ordinance is invalid in one or more of its applications, that part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 15. Miscellaneous.

(b) When reference is made to any portion of this Ordinance, the reference shall apply to all amendments made hereafter.

(c) All of the Tribe’s acts or other laws inconsistent with this Ordinance are hereby repealed. To the extent that this Ordinance provides other procedures or limitations than in any other Tribal law governing Claims against the Tribe, its Agents, Employees, or Officers, this Ordinance shall govern.
